Indian Public Health Standards for ayush healthcare facilities

Strategic collaboration between the Ministry of Ayush and the Indian Council of Medical Research aims at advancing integrative health research, integrate traditional ayush practices with modern medical science and take India o the forefront of holistic healthcare innovations

IME has come for integrat-IML has come for integrated medicine. Traditional healthcare will be a new fashion trend of the coming future. Collaborative research with the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) in ayush is extremely important as it bridges the new heavest redtiles leaves to define the control to the the gap between traditional knowledge and modern scientific re-search, promoting a synergistic approach to healthcare, said Mansukh Mandaviva, Union Minister for Health and Family Welfare. Launching the 'Indian Public Health Standards (IPHS) for Ayush Healthcare Facilities' during the inaugural ceremony of 27th Convocation & 29th National Seminar of Rashtriva Avurveda Vidvapeeth 'Avurvedo Amri-Vidyapeeth 'Ayurvedo Amri-tanam', in New Delhi, the minister said Ayush-ICMR Advanced Cen-tre for Integrative Health Research (AI-ACIHR) at select AIIMS will be set up across the nation. Collaborative research in ayush is extremely important as it bridges he gap between traditional know edge and modern scientific re search, promoting a synergistic approach to healthcare

"Ayurveda is a part of our culture, heritage and tradition. It is still being followed in our everyday practice. This strategic collaboration aims at advancing integrative health research, integrate traditional avush practices with modern medical science and take India to the forefront of holistic healthcare innova-tions," said Mr Mandaviya. Highlighting that the government is following an integrative approach so as to take the best practices from both the discilines – avurveda and allonath the minister said that "the Cen tral government is working towards providing quality-orie wards providing quality-oriented healthcare in response to in-creasing needs of the people of the country. In this direction, the IPHS for Ayush Healthcare Facilities were published by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare as a set of uniform stan-Weltare as a set of uniform standards to improve the quality of healthcare delivery. By adopting these reforms, it is expected that the states/UTs will be able to develop ayush healthcare services with set standards and quality infrastructure, thereby
